FROM: Committee Majority Staff

DATE: November 24, 2026

SUBJECT: December 2, 2026, Full Committee Hearing: "The Future of Financial Services: Opportunities, Challenges, and the Path Forward"

On Wednesday, December 2, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., the House Committee on Financial Services will hold a hearing in Room 2128 of the Rayburn House Office Building, titled "The Future of Financial Services: Opportunities, Challenges, and the Path Forward." The following witnesses will testify:

- Mr. Erik Syvertsen, CEO & President, AngelList Asset Management
- Mr. Jim Johnson, President, Banking, FIS
- Mr. Blake Breathitt, Global Head of Strategy, Adyen
- Ms. Erica Khalili, Co-Founder and Chief Legal & Risk Officer, Lead Bank
- Mr. Tom Feltner, Associate Director of Consumer Policy, Americans for Financial Reform

This hearing will examine the future of financial services from novel products to technology upgrades, to evolving market structures and the types of institutions that will exist five, ten, and twenty years from now. The hearing will analyze how these changes are reshaping the financial system and the opportunities and challenges they present, both for market participants and consumers.
