AN ACT

To support revitalization and reform of the Organization of American States, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Organization of Amer-
3 ican States Revitalization and Reform Act of 2013”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress makes the following findings:

6 (1) The Charter of the Organization of Amer-
7 ican States recognizes that—

8 (A) representative democracy is indispen-
9 sable for the stability, peace, and development 10 of the Western Hemisphere; and 11 (B) a purpose of the Organization of 12 American States is to promote and consolidate 13 representative democracy, with due respect for 14 the principle of nonintervention.

15 (2) The United States supports the purposes
16 and principles enshrined in—

17 (A) the Charter of the Organization of 18 American States;

19 (B) the Inter-American Democratic Char-20 ter; and

21 (C) the American Declaration on the 22 Rights and Duties of Man.

23 (3) The United States supports the Organiza-
24 tion of American States in its efforts with all mem-25 ber states to meet our commitments under the in-26 struments set forth in paragraph (2).

1           (4) Congress supports the Organization of 2           American States as it operates in a manner con-
3           sistent with the Inter-American Democratic Charter.

4 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

5           It is the policy of the United States—

6           (1) to promote democracy and the rule of law
7           throughout the Western Hemisphere;

8           (2) to promote and protect human rights and 9           fundamental freedoms in the Western Hemisphere;
10          and

11          (3) to support the practices, purposes, and prin-
12          ciples expressed in the Charter of the Organization
13          of American States, the American Declaration on 14          the Rights and Duties of Man, the Inter-American 15          Democratic Charter, and other fundamental instru-
16          ments of democracy.

17 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

18          It is the sense of Congress that—

19          (1) the Organization of American States (OAS)
20          should be the primary multi-lateral diplomatic entity 21          for regional dispute resolution and promotion of 22          democratic governance and institutions;

23          (2) the OAS is a valuable platform from which 24          to launch initiatives aimed to benefit the countries
25          of the Western Hemisphere;

1           (3) the Summit of the Americas institution and 2 process embodies a valuable complement to regional 3 dialogue and cooperation;

4           (4) the Summit of the Americas process should 5 be formally and more effectively integrated into the 6 work of the OAS, the Inter-American Development
7 Bank, and other Members of the Joint Summit
8 Working Group, and the OAS should play a central 9 role in overseeing and managing the Summit pro-
10 cess;

11          (5) the OAS General Assembly and the Summit
12 of the Americas events should be combined geo-13 graphically and chronologically in the years in which 14 they coincide;

15          (6) the OAS has historically accepted too many 16 mandates from its member states, resulting in both 17 lack of clarity on priorities and loss of institutional 18 focus, which in turn has reduced the effectiveness of 19 the organization;

20          (7) to ensure an appropriate balance of prior-21 ities, the OAS should review its core functions no 22 less than annually and seek opportunities to reduce 23 the number of mandates not directly related to its 24 core functions;

1           (8) key OAS strengths lie in strengthening
2           peace and security, promoting and consolidating rep-
3           resentative democracy, regional dispute resolution, 4           election assistance and monitoring, fostering eco-
5           nomic growth and development cooperation, facili-6           tating trade, combating illicit drug trafficking and 7           transnational crime, and support for the Inter-Amer-
8           ican Human Rights System;

9           (9) the core competencies referred to in para-10          graph (8) should remain central to the strategic 11          planning process of the OAS and the consideration 12          of future mandates;

13          (10) any new OAS mandates should be accept-14          ed by the member states only after an analysis is 15          conducted and formally presented consisting of a 16          calculation of the financial costs associated with the 17          mandate, an assessment of the comparative advan-
18          tage of the OAS in the implementation of the man-19          date, and a description of the ways in which the 20          mandate advances the organization's core mission;

21          (11) any new mandates should include, in addi-22          tion to the analysis described in paragraph (10), an 23          identification of the source of funding to be used to 24          implement the mandate;

1           (12) the OAS would benefit from enhanced co-
2           ordination between the OAS and the Inter-American 3           Development Bank on issues that relate to economic 4           development;

5           (13) the OAS would benefit from standard re-
6           porting requirements for each project and grant 7           agreement;

8           (14) the OAS would benefit from effective im-9           plementation of—

10                   (A) transparent and merit-based human 11                   resource standards and processes; and

12                   (B) transparent hiring, firing, and pro-13                   motion standards and processes, including with 14                   respect to factors such as gender and national 15                   origin; and

16           (15) it is in the interest of the United States,
17           OAS member states, and a modernized OAS to move
18           toward an assessed fee structure that assures the fi-
19           nancial sustainability of the organization and estab-20           lishes, not later than five years after the date of the 21           enactment of this Act, that no member state pays 22           more than 50 percent of the organization's assessed 23           fees.

1 SEC. 5. ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES REVITALIZA-
2 TION AND REFORM STRATEGY.

13 section 4(8);

14 (B) outlines an approach to secure from 15 the OAS effective adoption of—

23 from other Executive Branch agencies, as ap-24 propriate; and

25 (D) identifies a path toward the adoption 26 of necessary reforms that would—

1 (i) lead to an assessed fee structure in 2 which no member state would pay more
3 than 50 percent of the OAS's assessed 4 yearly fees; and

5 (ii) seek to minimize the negative fi-
6 nancial impact on the OAS and its oper-
7 ations.

8 (2) POLICY PRIORITIES AND COORDINATION.—

9 The Secretary of State shall—

10 (A) carry out diplomatic engagement to 15 OAS member states.

2           adopt and effectively implement transparent and 3           merit-based human resource standards and practices

5           ards and processes, including with respect to factors 6           such as gender and national origin;

7           (4) analyzes the progress made by the OAS to 8           adopt and effectively implement a practice of solie-9           iting member quotas to be paid on a schedule that 10          will improve the consistency of its operating budget;
11          and

12          (5) analyzes the progress made by the OAS to 13          review, streamline, and prioritize mandates to focus
14          on core missions and make efficient and effective use 15          of available funding.
