117TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. RES. 833

Expressing support for Moldova's democracy, independence, and territorial integrity and strengthening United States and Moldova relations.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 2, 2021

Mr. PRICE of North Carolina (for himself and Mr. PFLUGER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on Ways and Means, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for Moldova's democracy, independence, and territorial integrity and strengthening United States and Moldova relations.

Whereas the Republic of Moldova gained independence from the Soviet Union in 1991;

Whereas the United States established diplomatic relations with Moldova on February 18, 1992, and the 2 countries have since enjoyed expanded and positive relations;

Whereas United States assistance to Moldova and the Strategic Dialogue between the United States and Moldova, which was launched on March 3, 2014, has strengthened the relationship between the 2 countries and focused on advancing shared interests in democracy, good governance, rule of law, anticorruption, energy independence, economic development, and security cooperation;

Whereas Congress and State and local communities have a history of engaging with Moldovan young leaders, civil society, and Members of Parliament through official exchanges;

Whereas Moldova ratified an association agreement containing comprehensive free trade provisions with the European Union in 2014 and the agreement became fully effective in July 2016;

Whereas Moldova's main trading partner is the European Union;

Whereas Moldova is a member of the European Union's Eastern Partnership;

Whereas since the Russian Federation's unprovoked full-scale invasion of Ukraine on February 24, 2022, Moldova has opened its border to refugees fleeing Ukraine;

Whereas, on March 3, 2022, Moldova submitted an application to become a member of the European Union;

Whereas the Moldovan 2020 Presidential and 2021 parliamentary elections resulted in a government with a mandate to fight corruption, reinvigorate economic reforms, enhance judicial independence, revitalize European integration efforts, and strengthen relations with the United States;

Whereas, in November 2020, Moldova elected its first female President, Maia Sandu, and since August 6, 2021, women serve as both Moldova's head of state and head of government;

Whereas according to the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe's Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights, the most recent elections were "well administered, competitive and fundamental freedoms were largely respected";

Whereas in a judgment in 2004, the European Court of Human Rights found that Moldova's separatist region of Transnistria was created with the support of the Government of the Russian Federation and considered it "under the effective authority or at least decisive influence" of the Kremlin;

Whereas the United States supports the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Moldova and on that basis participates as an observer in the "5+2" negotiations to find a comprehensive settlement that will provide a special status for Transnistria within Moldova's internationally recognized borders;

Whereas the Government of the Russian Federation maintains a contingent of military forces and a stockpile of military equipment and ammunition within the Transnistrian region constituting an occupation of Moldovan territory and a violation of Moldova's territorial sovereignty;

Whereas the Council of Europe, the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe Mission to Moldova, and the Government of Moldova have called upon the Kremlin to remove its troops from the territory of Moldova;

Whereas, in July 2017, the Moldovan Parliament adopted a declaration calling on the Kremlin to withdraw its troops from Moldova;

Whereas, on September 22, 2021, Moldovan President Maia Sandu addressed the United Nations General Assembly and called for the Kremlin to withdraw its troops from the Transnistrian region;

Whereas Moldova has been a valued and reliable partner in promoting global security by participating in United Nations peacekeeping missions in the Central African Republic, Kosovo, and South Sudan, supporting United States efforts to increase international cooperation in combating terrorism, and providing demining units and postconflict humanitarian assistance in Iraq;

Whereas, since 1996, Moldova's Armed Forces have participated in the United States National Guard State Partnership Program as a partner to the North Carolina National Guard, which led to the creation of the Moldova-North Carolina Bilateral Partnership, which has facilitated cooperation in the areas of civil emergency operations, expansion of markets, coordination of humanitarian efforts and cultural, scientific, and academic exchanges;

Whereas Moldova cooperates with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization through the Partnership for Peace program, including participation in the Defense and Related Security Capacity Building Initiative, a flagship defense reform partnership focused on reforming and modernizing Moldova's Armed Forces to improve expertise, interoperability, and peacekeeping capabilities; and

Whereas, on September 21, 2021, President Biden addressed the 76th United Nations General Assembly stating that the democratic world “lives in the proud Moldovans who helped deliver a landslide victory for the forces of democracy, with a mandate to fight graft, to build a more inclusive economy”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) urges the United States Government, Euro-
3 pean Union, and other transatlantic partners to in-
4 crease cooperation, coordination, and support for the 5 Republic of Moldova’s democratic development, eco-
6 nomic and energy independence, and efforts to root
7 out corruption;

10 territorial integrity of Moldova and the inviolability
11 of its borders;

12 (3) affirms Moldova’s sovereign right to deter-
13 mine its own partnerships free of external coercion
14 and pressure, and affirms Moldova’s right to asso-
15 ciate with the European Union or any regional orga-
16 nization;

17 (4) encourages increased activity related to the 18 Strategic Dialogue as a means to strengthen rela-
19 tions between Moldova and the United States;

20 (5) supports the Joint Commercial Commission
21 between the United States and Moldova to strength-

1 en the bilateral trade and investment relationship
2 between the 2 nations and improve Moldova's invest-
3 ment climate;

4 (6) encourages the United States Government
5 to engage at a leadership level to enhance United 6 States partnerships with the Government of Moldova
7 and civil society organizations;

8 (7) encourages the Secretary of State, the Ad-
9 ministrator of the United States Agency for Inter-10 national Development, the Chief Executive Officer of 11 the Development Finance Corporation, the Secretary
12 of Energy, and the United States Trade Representa-
13 tive to increase and focus assistance on justice sector
14 reform, strengthening democratic institutions, pro-
15 moting an open and transparent government, fos-
16 tering indigenous independent media and an open
17 information environment, increasing domestic energy
18 development, diversification of energy supplies and 19 energy efficiency, improving transport and commu-
20 nication infrastructure, as well as the promotion of 21 trade and investment opportunities, along with inclu-22 sive economic growth focusing on the rural areas be-
23 yond the capital;

24 (8) commends Moldova's efforts to take in 25 Ukrainian refugees and urges increased assistance

1 by the United States, European Union, and other al-
2 lies and partners to Moldova to assist with those ef-
3 forts;

4 (9) reaffirms the importance of free, fair, and 5 transparent elections in Moldova;

6 (10) urges the Secretary of State, the Adminis-
7 trator of the United States Agency for International 8 Development, the Chief Executive Officer of the 9 United States Agency for Global Media, and other
10 heads of Federal departments and agencies to con-11 tinue to work with the Government of Moldova and 12 Moldovan civil society to strengthen independent
13 media and combat Russian disinformation and prop-
14 aganda;

15 (11) calls upon the Government of the Russian 16 Federation to fulfill its commitments made at the 17 Organization for Security and Co-operation in Eu-18 rope's Istanbul summit in 1999, and to withdraw its 19 military forces and munitions from within the inter-
20 nationally recognized territory of Moldova;

21 (12) calls upon the Government of the Russian
22 Federation to refrain from military and economic 23 threats to Moldova and cease any and all actions
24 that support the so-called "authorities" in the sepa-
25 ratist region of Transnistria;

1 (13) supports a results-oriented 5+2 process as
2 a constructive format for resolving the Transnistria
3 conflict through a comprehensive settlement that se-
4 cures Moldova’s sovereignty and territorial integrity;
5 and

6 (14) affirms that lasting stability and security
7 in Moldova is in the strategic interest of the United
8 States and that these can only be achieved if the ter-
9 ritorial integrity and sovereignty of Moldova and all
10 European countries are respected.

 Amend the title so as to read: “A resolution reaffirming support for strong United States and Moldova relations, Moldova’s democracy, and its sovereignty and territorial integrity.”.
