

Christopher W. Hesse, CPACliftonLarsonAllen LLP

Principal
Minneapolis, Minnesota

612-397-3071
chris.hesse@CLAconnect.com

Profile

Chris is a principal in CliftonLarsonAllen's National Tax Office, specializing in federal tax matters. He provides tax research, planning, and training firm wide and externally to other tax professionals.

Technical experience

- Federal income tax
- Agricultural tax matters
- S corporations, sales and purchases, reorganizations, tax-deferred exchanges, Section 338 transactions, and Section 409A deferred compensation plans

Education/professional involvement

- Bachelor of Arts in business administration from Southern Oregon State College (now Southern Oregon University), Ashland, Oregon
- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Tax Division
- Certified Public Accountant in the states of Washington and Minnesota
- Member of the AICPA Tax Executive Committee
- Former Chair of the AICPA S Corporation Technical Resource Panel
- Served on the Tax Legislation and Policy Committee and Tax Methods and Periods Technical Resource Panel of the AICPA Tax Division

Speaking engagements

- Writer and instructor of CliftonLarsonAllen's Tax Advisors Update and Farm Taxation Update
- Frequent lecturer at various seminars and conferences throughout the country
- Has testified before legislative committees on tax policy matters and has been instrumental in federal and state tax law changes