

The Honorable Dawn D. Stump

Dawn D. Stump is the principal of Stump Strategic, an advisory firm specializing in business development for highly regulated industries. She previously served as a Commissioner of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Serving during the event of a global pandemic, Dawn prioritized sector resilience, sustained market access, and robust surveillance strategies necessary during extreme market volatility and changing economic environments. At the CFTC, Dawn also played a leadership role in international regulatory policy coordination.

Dawn shares her professional expertise on the board of directors of ICE Futures U.S. and Railbird Exchange. She is also a strategic advisor to Solidus Labs, a managing director for SEDA Experts, and a member of the Advisory Council to the Women in Financial Markets Board of Directors.

She previously held the position of Senior Vice President at the Futures Industry Association and was a Vice President at NYSE Euronext. During her early career, she served in senior professional staff positions in both the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives. She was actively involved in negotiating the reform of derivatives regulations contained in the Dodd-Frank Act and managed oversight of commodity and financial derivatives markets for the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry.
