

Jennifer Golbuff
Fort Collins, CO

Jenni Golbuff is an active member of the Bug-A-Bug-A 4-H club as well as the Larimer County Junior Leader Club in Fort Collins, Colorado. Prior to moving to Colorado, she was a nine-year member of Hayward 4-H in Minnesota.

Jenni Golbuff has been deeply involved in the 4-H program since she was a Cloverbud. Jenni was a frequent attendee of the Minnesota Building Leadership and Understanding Conference. In Minnesota, she was elected to be a Freeborn County 4-H Ambassador. Ambassador duties included working and cooperating with adult advisors in the program; planning and carrying out new programs to enhance the 4-H program; presenting and promoting 4-H to the community; conducting training sessions for 4-H members and youth leaders; and planning county youth leader events such as, February Follies, Cloverbud Helper, Winter Youth Leader Retreat, M.C. County Share-the-Fun, Fashion Revue Helpers/ Escorts, and assisting at county fair livestock shows and working the front desk in the exhibit building.

In Colorado, Jenni has attended numerous leadership events and conferences including the 2013 4-H State Conference held at the CSU Campus in Fort Collins, Colorado. She has also been accepted as a Colorado Delegate for the 2015 National 4-H Conference in Washington, D.C.

When Jenni is not studying, working or volunteering, she enjoys spending time with friends, reading, and playing sports. She attributes her success to faith, family and, of course, 4-H.
