

Harley Rogers
Hamilton, TX

Harley Rogers is a junior at Hamilton High School and a nine year 4-H member. Her main projects have been science and technology, beef, vet science, public speaking, and photography. She has competed in the local, district, and state level in several different competitive contests. Harley has been awarded the Bronze Star, Silver Star, I Dare You, and the highest-ranking Gold Star Award. She has also been honored with awards such as Outstanding 4-H'er, Top Leader, and Top Record Book Story.

Harley is well-rounded and participates in many other organizations. Harley is currently the junior president of the Texas Polled Hereford Association. She is an active member in her local FFA chapter and is a Cross Timbers district officer. Harley is a member of the National Honors Society and participates in various community service activities.

In addition she is a cattle rancher and personally owns 50 head of cattle. She markets these cattle through her website Herefordsteers.com. Harley and her siblings recently built their own business called Cowhouse Creek Meat Company, LLC. The business markets grass-fed beef to natural food vendors. Harley serves as vice president of marketing.

In Harley's free time she enjoys showing steers and heifers and judging livestock. In the future, Harley plans to attend Oklahoma State University to study agricultural business. After getting her degree she would like to start her own new business.
