

Terry W. McClure

Terry W. McClure is President of McClure Farms LLC which produces corn, soybeans and wheat and maintains swine and cattle operations in Paulding County, Ohio. He is a fifth generation farmer and is currently joined in his family operation with his son and father.

McClure was elected to the Nationwide board in 2004. He is former board chairman of Farmland Mutual Insurance Company and Nationwide Agribusiness Insurance Company (2006-2009).

McClure is a board member of The Ohio Chapter of the Nature Conservancy; American Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture; and the Ohio Soybean Council. He is a member of the Ohio Soybean Association and the Ohio Cattlemen's Association.

McClure is a former president of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation and former board member of the Farm Bureau Bank and the American Farm Bureau Federation. He has previously served on and the National Biodiesel Board, the Soy Transportation Coalition and the Ohio Corn and Wheat Growers Board.