

Peter Friederichs

Peter Friederichs of Foxhome, Minnesota currently serves as President of the National Barley Growers Association and represents the Minnesota Barley Growers Association as an NBGA director. Peter and his wife, Sheri, have operated their west-central Minnesota, 4th generation family farm for 35 years. The farm was established in 1889, and now grows barley, wheat, soybeans, and sunflowers. They also operate and manage Friederichs Seed, Inc., a multi-generation business that has been in operation for more than a century and specializes in registered seed sales and conditioning. Peter received a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from North Dakota State University. Peter and Sheri have 4 children – Ava, Brooke, Mariah, and Isabel.