

Committee on Agriculture
U.S. House of Representatives
Information Required From Nongovernmental Witnesses

House rules require nongovernmental witnesses to provide their resume or biographical sketch prior to testifying. If you do not have a resume or biographical sketch available, please complete this form.

- 1. Name: Brent Cheyne
- 2. Organization you represent: National Association of Wheat Growers
- 3. Please list any occupational, employment, or work-related experience you have which add to your qualification to provide testimony before the Committee: Brent Cheyne farms near Klamath Falls in southern Oregon. He raises wheat and barley, oats and alfalfa on about 400 acres. He also raises champion Angus cattle.
- 4. Please list any special training, education, or professional experience you have which add to your qualifications to provide testimony before the Committee: The Cheyne farm was certified a Century Farm in 2015, through the Century Farm and Ranch Program offered by the Oregon Farm Bureau. Additionally, Cheyne has farming interest in a dry land wheat operation in Sherman county in Northern Oregon. Brent began his tenure with the Oregon Wheat Growers League in 2011 as Klamath County President before accepting the position of Secretary/Treasurer in 2015. Brent has been a valuable asset to the League. He also served as Klamath County Farm Bureau President from 1983-1986, and sat on the Oregon Farm Bureau Board of Directors from 1987-1988.
- 5. If you are appearing on behalf of an organization, please list the capacity in which you are representing that organization, including any offices or elected positions you hold: Brent Cheyne is President of the National Association of Wheat Growers, testifying to represent wheat growers from across the United States. Brent has formally held the offices prior to President with NAWG (Secretary, Treasurer, and Vice President).
