

Douglas Christie

Doug is the President of Cargill Cotton, a business unit of Cargill Incorporated. Cargill Cotton handles and trades cotton worldwide with operations in the US, the UK, Brazil, China, India and Africa. As the Business Unit Leader, Doug has overall responsibility for the global cotton business.

Prior to joining the cotton business in June 2009, Doug spent 22 years in a variety of trading and general management roles with Cargill's Oilseed processing and trading businesses. Doug spent a significant portion of that time in Asia, living and working in the Philippines, Malaysia, Singapore and India. From 1997-2000 he lived in Delhi and served as general manager for Cargill's Grain and Oilseed trading activities in India. In 2000, Doug returned to the US to serve as Assistant Vice President of the North American Grain & Oilseed Supply Chain BU where his responsibilities included Softseed crushing and the Biodiesel business.

Doug is originally from Minneapolis and is a 1987 graduate of Macalester College in St. Paul Minnesota.
