

Ms. Marnie Rosenberg, Global Head, Clearing House Risk and Strategy, JP Morgan Chase & Co.

Ms. Marnie Rosenberg is the Global Head of Clearing House Risk, Strategy, and Advisory at JP Morgan within JP Morgan's Risk Management Function. The team's primary responsibilities are to evaluate the firm's membership risk related to centrally cleared trading activities, liaise with internal and external constituents to determine and guide JPM's thinking on central counterparty risk concerns and related regulatory matters. From 2004 through 2008, Marnie led JPM investment bank's internal compliance efforts with respect to Sarbanes-Oxley. Prior to joining JPM in 2004, Marnie worked for several years at, a start-up enterprise-wide risk management software company focused on financial services. From 1993 through 1999, Marnie worked at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Bank Supervision function as a Senior Financial Examiner.