

Shan Hanes

Bio

December 3, 2019

Shan Hanes is the President/CEO of Heartland Tri-State Bank in Elkhart, KS and President/CEO of Elkhart Financial Corporation a Bank Holding Company. He began his banking career in 1993 as an Ag Loan Officer and IT Officer for the First National Bank of Elkhart and in 2008 was promoted to the President/CEO position. December 1st 2017 the bank completed a charter change to convert from a National Bank to a State Chartered Bank which was named, Heartland Tri-State Bank. In September of 2011, he put a local investment group together and purchased the bank from its former holding company. He has served as the President/CEO of the Bank and Holding Company since inception. Heartland Tri-State Bank is a $130 million bank located in Southwest Kansas serving rural customers as well as Ag farmers and ranchers with its four locations. Shan still services an Ag loan portfolio and has an active farm operation.

He served on American Bankers Association's Ag and Rural Banker Committee for five years from 2015-2019 and is the immediate Past-Chairman. He is currently serving his second year on the ABA Government Relations Committee. He was the Kansas Bankers Association Education/Human Resources Chair 2012-2015 and the Kansas Bankers Association Ag Division President 2013-2014.

He is currently serving on the American Bankers Association's Board of Directors and Government Relations Committee, Kansas Bankers Association Federal Affairs Committee and Ag Committee as well as on the Bureau of Consumer Protection's Community Bankers Advisory Council.