

Daniel Schoenberger, Attorney at Law, LLM (Edinburgh), Chief Legal Officer, Web3 Foundation (W3F)

Daniel Schoenberger is a Swiss qualified attorney with over 20 years of experience in the information technology space. He holds a law degree from the University of Zurich and an LLM in medical law and ethics from the University of Edinburgh. At Web3 Foundation Daniel is in charge of all legal, regulatory, government affairs and public policy matters. Earlier in his career Daniel acted as the Swiss Country Legal Counsel of Hewlett-Packard. The last 13 years before joining Web3 Foundation Daniel served as Google's Head of Legal for Switzerland & Austria and EMEA Legal Lead for AI Policy. Daniel is a corporate generalist with strong expertise in copyright, privacy and data protection, litigation management, content regulation matters, cloud projects, competition and all things crypto assets. Daniel published several academic papers on legal, ethical and philosophical aspects of AI, including with Oxford University Press. He is a member of the executive board of the Research Centre for Innovation Law of the University of St. Gallen (FIR) and a member of the board of trustees of the Academy of European Law (ERA). In 2018 Daniel was awarded the McLagan Prize by the University of Edinburgh.