

Randy Mooney Biography

Testifying on behalf of the National Milk Producers Federation (NMPF)

Randy Mooney currently serves as Chairman of the National Milk Producers Federation. Randy and his wife, Jan, operate Mooney Dairy in Rogersville, Missouri. Randy was elected chairman of Dairy Farmers of America's (DFA) Board of Directors in 2010 and is a member of DFA's Executive Committee. In addition to NMPF, Randy serves on the boards of several dairy organizations, including Missouri State Milk Board, Dairy Management Inc., Hiland Dairy and the Innovation Center for U.S. Dairy. In 2010, Randy received the Missouri Dairy Hall of Honors Foundation Dairy Leader Award, and in 2011, he received the Missouri Governors Award for Agricultural Achievement. In 2014, he was recognized for his leadership in the Missouri dairy industry with the Missouri Dairy Legacy Award, and was named Director of the Year by the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives.