“Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States.—The Committee is concerned about the ramifications of the Shuanghui International Holdings Ltd. potential acquisition of Smithfield Foods. The Committee believes that technology transfer, food safety, and food security issues are concerns that should be considered in any Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) review of the acquisition. The Committee expects the Secretary of the Treasury, in conjunction with other relevant Federal agency heads, to consider the impact the acquisition will have on the short- and long-term ability of the United States to protect intellectual property rights, as well as the safety and security of the U.S. food supply system during the CFIUS review of the Shuanghui International Holdings Ltd. proposed acquisition of Smithfield Foods and to provide a detailed briefing to Congress about its findings.”

mittee expects OMB to ensure the long term effectiveness of the Office of the IPEC through hiring of permanent senior staff. OMB is directed to report to the Committee within 120 days of enactment of this Act on the current budget for the Office of the IPEC, including the number of permanent full-time equivalents.”

“GSA contracting issues.—The Committee appreciates the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) Council publication of a list of untimely contractors pursuant to section 1334 of the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010. While this publication is a step in the right direction, the Committee remains concerned about untimely payments between prime contractors and subcontractors. Small businesses are often subcontractors and late payments from prime contractors create serious cash flow management problems for these small businesses. The Committee expects contracting officers for members of the FAR Council, to consider the unjustified failure by a prime contractor to make a full or timely payment to a subcontractor in evaluating the performance of the prime contractor. Additionally, the Committee strongly encourages GSA to make publically available the list of untimely contractors through the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System as specified in section 1334 of the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010.”.

On page 62 and 63 strike “$500,000” each place it appears and insert “$1,200,000”. Adjust the funding comparisons accordingly.

On page 69 strike the paragraph titled “Disclosures” and insert the following:

*“Disclosures.—*Corporate disclosures are at the core of investor protection but, to be effective, disclosures must be timely, accurate, and understandable to both retail and institutional investors. Corporate disclosures should also be provided to investors in an easily accessible format. Voluminous, overly-complex, legalistic and immaterial corporate disclosures both increase investor confusion and discourage shareholder participation in important corporate governance matters. Recent SEC actions to improve investor access to corporate disclosures, including the new eXtensible business reporting language (XBRL) electronic data filing requirements, have so far been met with limited success. The committee requests a report from the SEC within 90 days of this Act on (i) the SEC’s efforts to update the Federal securities laws to ensure that investors are receiving timely, accurate, and meaningful corporate disclosures in an understandable and accessible format; (ii) the effects of unnecessary and burdensome corporate disclosure obligations on public companies; (iii) the SEC’s efforts to appropriately scale disclosure requirements under the Federal securities laws for smaller public companies, which generally have fewer resources to devote toward costly compliance functions; and (iv) the SEC’s efforts to permit public companies to issue a simplified or one-page summary of their quarterly and annual filings to enhance the retail investor’s understanding of material information that is important to an investment decision.”

On page 70 under Small Business Administration, Salaries and Expenses strike “$417,000,000” each place it appears and insert “$415,882,000”. Adjust the funding comparisons accordingly.

On page 79, after Section 633 insert the following:

“SEC. 634. The bill includes a provision directing the Secretary of the Treasury and the Administrator of the General Services Administration, working with the Government Accountability Office, to provide a comprehensive report that provides updated performance metrics that are measurable, repeatable, and directly linked to requests for funding. Performance measures in future budget justifications should clearly demonstrate the extent to which prior year investments in programs, projects and activities can be tied to progress toward achieving priority goals and include estimates for how proposed investments will contribute to additional progress. In particular, performance measures should measure outcome (results and impact), output (volume), and efficiency.”
