

Witness Biography: Anastasia Staten

Anastasia has 20 years of experience spanning nonprofit management, fundraising, communications, and politics. She is currently serving as the Executive Director of the ESA Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the video game industry and the Chair and Board member of HALO Trust USA and The HALO Trust respectively. Previously, she served in leadership positions with distinguished organizations such as Norman Lear's non-profit, People for the American Way Foundation, and American Humane Association. Prior to her career in nonprofit philanthropy, Anastasia worked in politics in her home state of Ohio.