Fighting for an AIDS-free generation

Catherine Connor, JD
Vice President, Public Policy and Advocacy

Catherine Connor is the Vice President of Public Policy and Advocacy at the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation. In addition to managing the organization's advocacy portfolio, Connor spearheads EGPAF's U.S. legislative activities and multilateral advocacy engagement on domestic and global health issues. In 2023 she was named as an Alternate Board Member for the NGO Delegation of the Global Fund to Fight HIV, Tuberculosis, and Malaria and has served as the co-chair for the Coalition for Children Affected by AIDS since 2022. Prior to joining EGPAF in 2007, Connor worked at Squire Patton Boggs LLP in Washington, D.C. where she specialized in U.S. health care law and public policy. She earned her law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and graduated with honors from the University of Georgia with a bachelor's degree in political science and journalism.
