

Frank White Bull, Tribal Councilmember Standing Rock Sioux Tribe

Frank White Bull currently serves as a member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council, having been most recently elected as the representative to the Tribal Council from the Tribe's Kenel District on July 13, 2012. As a member of the Tribal Council, Councilman White Bull also serves on the Tribe's Economic Committee, one of the three standing committees of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council. Prior to his current term, Councilman White Bull was elected and served on the Standing Rock Sioux Tribal Council from 2001 to 2009.

During his tenure on the Tribal Council, Councilman White Bull has worked on a range of issues, including economic development, transportation, education, and housing. From 2001 to 2003, Councilman White Bull served as the Tribal Council's Gaming Liaison to Grand River Casino – one of two casinos owned and operated by the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe. Subsequently, from 2003 to 2005, Councilman White Bull served on the Bureau of Indian Affairs Roads Committee. From 2003 to 2009, he served on the Board of the United Tribes Technical College (UTTC). And from 2005 to 2007 Councilman White Bull also served as the Chairman of the Standing Rock Housing Authority Board.

Councilman White Bull has also worked to raise awareness among Tribal members of health-related issues. From August 2010 through July 2012, Councilman White Bull was employed as a Fitness Technician at the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe's Diabetes Program. Prior to that, from 1999 to 2001, he was the Fitness Coordinator for the Diabetes Program.

Before serving on the Tribal Council, Mr. White Bull worked in the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe's justice system. He was the Presenting Officer in the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe's Children Court from 1997 to 1998. Subsequently, from 1998 to 1999, he was employed as a Tribal Police Officer under the COPS program.

Councilman White Bull graduated from the Standing Rock Community Grant School in 1986. Shortly after graduation, he enlisted in the United States Army, serving his country from 1987 to 1996.