

Julie Roberts-Hyslop, Vice President
Tanana Chiefs Conference

Julie Roberts-Hyslop was recently elected as the vice-president of Tanana Chiefs Conference, has served on the Tanana Tribal Council as President for the past 4 years, and sits on the board for the Native American Rights Fund. She was born and raised in the native village of Tanana, Alaska and has over 20 years of experience working for the tribes in various capacities. She has previously served as the executive director of the Tanana tribe and as the office manager for her village corporation, Tozitna, Ltd. She attended Sheldon Jackson College in Sitka and the University of Alaska Fairbanks.