

Gregg Shutiva, Governor
Pueblo of Acoma

Gregg Shutiva is an enrolled member of Pueblo of Acoma and serves as a traditional cultural/spiritual leader (various traditional cultural language based song societies). Governor Shutiva was appointed governor by traditional Acoma cultural leaders in December 2012. In 2005, he was appointed and served as the First Lieutenant Governor. When not in office, he has been employed in various tribal, private sector and governmental position, as well as with for profit and non-profit organizations. He has served as Chairman of the Pueblo of Acoma Business Board and as the Business Development Officer at Acoma Business Enterprises. He earned a Bachelor's Degree from The Colorado College. As the 2013 Governor for the Pueblo of Acoma his desire is to engage in "community unification of the full spectrum of Acoma members; traditional cultural leaders, tribal government leaders, elders, adults, teenagers and youth".
