

Curriculum Vitae

Angela Barney Nez, Executive Director
Diné BiOlta School Board Association, Inc. (DBOSBA)

WORK EXPERIENCE – 11/19/2012 to Current (Oct 2013)

Executive Director

November 19, 2012 began in the position of the Executive Director of the Diné BiOlta School Board Association, Inc. (DBOSBA) charged with operations oversight, committed to cost-effective management of resources and quality performance. The organization is comprised of 66 member school boards elected as school board members of schools located with the boundaries of the Navajo Nation. Manage the Diné BiOlta School Board Association, Inc. administrative operations; fiscal responsibilities; human resources and fiscal controls of organizational funds. Handle all functions related to the P.L. 93-638 federal contract for school board technical assistance services and school board training. Developed program of professional development courses for all staff.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS: Leadership/communication skills: Human resources: Budget & Operations Management:

April 2008 – Jan 11, 2011

Executive Staff Assistant

Office of the Navajo Nation President and Vice-President

Served as administrator of the Office of the Navajo Nation First Lady. Budget preparations, program oversight, monitor projects in topics embraced by the First Lady including Early Childhood Literacy, DWI State and Navajo Nation Task Force(s) Prevention of Domestic Violence with the Indian Health Service, Navajo coalition groups, inter-tribal advisory groups, the AZ Governors Commission on Domestic Violence, USDOJ Task Force on Violence Against Women in Indian Country. Performed writing assignments, briefing summaries as needed.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

8/1973 – 5/1976

University of New Mexico. Albuquerque, NM

Bachelor of Arts

8/1972- 5/1973

Tarkio College, Missouri

Completed Course work- Teacher Educ.

09/1970 – 5/1972

Haskell Indian Junior College, Lawrence, KS

Associate of Arts

MILITARY TRAINING

7/1978 – 07/1984

Senior Aviation Specialist

Completed Basic and Specialty Training with Certificate in Army Aviation & Transportation.

May 18, 1984

Honorable Discharge
