

Jeffrey Mike Summary C.V.

My name is Jeffrey Mike, professionally, I provide counseling services to Native American children in P.L. 100-297 schools and homeliving programs. I am currently providing such services for Tiisyaakin Homeliving Program in Holbrook, Arizona.

Presently, I am midway through my second term as a School Board Member of the Pinon Community School (PCS). I am currently the President of the PCS School Board, a position which I have also held in the past. I am also a very active member in the Native American Grant School Association (NAGSA) and have in the past served as Director of NAGSA and have represented NAGSA as their designated representative in various public events.

I have been a steward of Native American education my entire life. I have and will continue to do whatever I can to further Native American education in that I believe it is the key to the future of Native America.
