

Bill Imbergamo is Executive Director of the Federal Forest Resource Coalition, a national non-profit representing purchasers of Federal timber, conservation groups, and county governments. He was named the organizations' founding Executive Director in 2011. Imbergamo has been actively involved in forest policy since 1991, when he began his career with the National Association of State Foresters. After ten years with that organization, including 4 as their Executive Director, Imbergamo was named Director, Congressional Affairs and Forest Policy at the American Forest & Paper Association. He served as Professional Staff to the House Committee on Agriculture from 2002 to 2006, and as Senior Professional Staff to the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry from 2009 to 2011. Imbergamo has been a member of the Society of American Foresters for over 10 years, and is an active member of the Ducks Unlimited Federal City Chapter. He was also appointed to the Virginia Board of Forestry in 2011. An avid hunter and angler, Imbergamo lives in Vienna, Virginia with his wife and daughter.
