

Antoine “Tony” Dixon
Director of Strategic Planning, Budget and Accountability (Budget)
USDA Forest Service

Tony Dixon, a native of Atlanta, Georgia, is currently the Director for the Strategic Planning, Budget, and Accountability office for the USDA Forest Service, a position he has held since July 2013. In this capacity, he is responsible for management and oversight of the execution, formulation, and presentation of the agency’s budget, developing and integrating implementation of the agency strategic plan, and all performance and accountability measures and agency strategic goals.

Tony is a 24-year employee of the US Forest Service and launched his career as a cooperative education student on the Routt National Forest in Steamboat Springs, CO. He has served in a variety of positions and geographical locations, including the National Director of the Forest Service Job Corps Program, Deputy Regional Forester of the Rocky Mountain Region, and Forest Supervisor of the National Forests in Mississippi. He also served as the Deputy Regional Director of Public Affairs in the Atlanta-based Southern Regional Office and held a number of positions in the National Headquarters in Washington, DC, including Program Analyst, Legislative Affairs Specialist, Deputy Area Budget Coordinator, and Chief of Staff for the Deputy Chief of the National Forest System.

Tony has a bachelor’s degree in marketing and forestry from Alabama A&M University and a master’s degree in administration from Central Michigan University. Tony is married to Dr. Angela Cole Dixon, and has one adult son, Christopher.
