

REID HAUGHEY

Professional Positions

The Wilderness Land Trust – President	2002 - present
Aspen Valley Land Trust – Executive Director	1998 - 2002
Policywest, Inc. – President	1996 -1998
Pitkin County Board of County Commissioners – County Manager	1989 -1996
Rio Blanco County Board of County Commissioners – County Manager	1983 -1988
Center for Public Private Sector Cooperation, University of Colorado	1981 -1983

Pre 1981

Worked for a number of private nonprofit regional mental health centers as a member of senior management teams. Was a studio potter, admitted to the Graduate School of Fine Arts at the University of Wisconsin. Awarded a scholarship to the National Institutes of Health Staff College to complete a course of study in the Management of Emergency Health Systems.

Publication – Research

Written and edited numerous articles for newspapers, multiple newsletters, fundraising materials, marketing collateral and research reports. Researched land tenure patterns in wilderness designation over time. Published psychiatric research on the encoding of memory as a research assistant for the University of Colorado.

Education

Yale University New Haven, Connecticut	1987	Post graduate fellowship to the School of Management
University of Colorado Denver, Colorado	1983	Masters of Public Administration, policy analysis concentration.
National Institutes of Health Staff College Houston, Texas	1979	Certificate in Management of Emergency Services
University of Colorado Boulder, Colorado	1974	Bachelors of Arts in Psychology