

Gary Burke
Tuk-Lu-Key

Chairman
Board of Trustees

Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation

Gary Burke was elected as Chairman in November 2009. He served a previous term as Chairman from November 2001 to 2003.

He graduated from Pilot Rock High School and received his Building Inspector Certification from Chemeketa Community College. Gary served as the CTUIR's first building inspector and was steadily employed as the inspector for over 20 years.

Gary is the hereditary Chief of the Umatilla Tribe.

Gary has been married to his wife Kathryn since 2005. He has four daughters from his previous marriage and 11 grandchildren.

In his spare time Gary enjoys watching young members of his family play sports and attending family events. An avid horseman, much of Gary's time away from his role as Chairman, is to take care of and ride his horses.
