

Timothy John “TJ” Greene Sr: Washington State

Tribal Chairman, Tribal Council

Timothy “TJ” John Greene, Sr. has dedicated over eight years to serving on the Makah Tribal Council and is currently in his second year as the Chairman. Prior to being an elected official, TJ served his Tribe as the Chief of Police after graduating from the BIA Police Academy in 2002 and Criminal Investigator Academy in 2003. Although he set out to follow in his family’s footsteps of being a Commercial Fisherman, TJ has focused his career on Tribal Leadership by combining his educational experience from Western Washington University’s College of Business & Economics and Evergreen State College’s Tribal Government program with his work experience in many areas such as Fisheries, Planning, Realty, Youth and Social Services.
