

Tom Miller is the president of the Association of Community Tribal Schools Inc. (ACTS) and superintendent of the Hannahville Indian School on Potawatomi tribal lands in Michigan. Mr. Miller is a member of the Sault Ste Marie Tribe of Chippewa and served as a Tribal Council Member from 2004 to 2012. Mr. Miller has a Master's degree in Education Administration from Central Michigan University and has more than 38 years of Native American education experience.