

Larry Wawronowicz, is the Natural Resource Director for the Lac du Flambeau Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians, located in Wisconsin. Larry has worked for the for the Lac du Flambeau Band Natural Resource Department for 33 years. He and his wife Doreen raised their family in the Lac du Flambeau community and have many friends and co-workers in Indian Country. He has served on the Board of the Native American Fish and Wildlife Society and has worked with Tribes and tribal organizations throughout Indian country on efforts and best practices to protect tribal natural resources.