Michael J. "Mic" Isham, Jr.

Mic Isham is Chairman of the Lac Courte Oreilles Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians and has served on the Lac Courte Oreilles Tribal Governing Board since 1995. He also has served on the Great Lakes Indian Fish & Wildlife Commission's Board of Commissioners since 1995, currently serving as the Board's Chair, and on the Commission's Voigt Intertribal Task Force for over 16 years, currently serving as the Task Force's Vice-Chair.

Mr. Isham is a graduate of Northland College, Ashland, Wisconsin. He has over 25 years of experience in natural resources management with agencies such as the Great Lakes Indian Fish & Wildlife Commission, the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, the USEPA, and the Lac Courte Oreilles Conservation Department where he served as the Department's Director for a number of years. In 2016, the Native American Fish & Wildlife Society presented Mr. Isham with its Chief Sealth Award, which recognizes exceptional work in the field of tribal natural resource management.
