

Lisa White Pipe is a council member of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe representing the Bull Creek Community which is located north of Gregory, SD. Lisa received a bachelor's degree in business management with a minor in accounting. Lisa has worked for the Rosebud Sioux Tribe for over 18 years. Most recently, Lisa worked as a legal advocate in the Rosebud Sioux Tribe Court system – employed as an Assistant Public Defender for the last six years. Lisa's ever-growing interest in political and community service are inspired by her father, Charles White Pipe who served as Treasurer of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe for 16 years. In May of 2016, while serving a term as Rosebud Sioux Tribe Council Representative for the Bull Creek Community, Lisa's father passed away from cancer. Seeing the need to continue the tradition of service, Lisa rose to the occasion and ran unopposed to serve in her father's vacant seat. Lisa's federal Indian policy acumen continues to grow as rapidly as her desire to advocate for continued awareness of the federal government's trust responsibility and fulfillment of its treaty obligations. Lisa's time serving on the Rosebud Sioux Tribe's Budget and Finance Committee provides her with valuable insight into the financial needs of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe.
