

Flordelino Lagundino, Artistic Director, Park Square Theatre, MN
Appropriations Subcommittee on Interior, Environment and Related Agencies
U.S. House of Representatives
Public Hearing - February 26, 2019

Flordelino Lagundino is the James W. Harris Family Artistic Director at Park Square Theatre in St. Paul, MN. Flordelino is a recipient of the 2018 SDCF Sir John Gielgud Classical Theatre Directing Fellowship, the 2017 Drama League New York Directing Fellowship, and recently acted in the Ivey Award-winning production (Best Ensemble) of Vietgone at Mixed Blood Theatre, MN.

He is the former artistic director of Generator Theater and of Leviathan Lab, and is a graduate of the Brown/Trinity Repertory Company MFA program in directing and The University of Texas at Austin MFA program in acting.

He has directed at Park Square Theatre, Perseverance Theatre, Pan Asian Rep, Syracuse Stage, Leviathan Lab, New Dramatists, Juneau Symphony, Oregon Shakespeare Festival (Midnight Project), Arena Stage (Student Playwright's Project), International Theater and Literacy Project, Yale Cabaret, Juneau Arts and Humanities Council, Brown University, Worcester State University, University of Alaska-SE, Tsunami Theatre, and Washington Theater Festival.

As an actor, Flordelino has worked at The Old Globe, The Kennedy Center, Mixed Blood Theatre, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, The Shakespeare Theater Company, Pan Asian Rep, African Continuum Theatre Company, The Folger Theatre, Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company, ZACH Theatre, Perseverance Theatre, 2G, Leviathan Lab, Imagination Stage, Tsunami Theatre Company, The Last Frontier Theatre Conference, Young Playwrights' Theatre, Austin Script Works, Source Theater Festival, and was a guest artist with Living Stage Theatre Company.

Flordelino was the recipient of directing fellowships at Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Arena Stage, and The Kennedy Center. He has taught at Brown University, The University of Texas at Austin, The New School, and the University of Alaska-Southeast.