

Alexander “Alex” Tittle, Sr.

Alex Tittle currently serves as the Disparity Reduction Director for Hennepin County. Prior to beginning this position, he was Vice President of Business Connect and Corporate Affairs for the Minnesota 2018 Super Bowl Host Committee, under the direction of the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority (“MSFA”). Prior to taking on his Super Bowl duties, Alex held the position of Equity Director for the MSFA, Minnesota’s quasi-state agency responsible for the design, construction and operation of the “U.S. Bank Stadium.” In that position, he developed, directed and implemented all diversity and inclusion efforts for the $1 billion dollar project. Prior to joining the MSFA, Alex served as the Director for the Office of Civil Rights at the Minnesota Department of Transportation and Education & Operations Director at Summit Academy OIC in North Minneapolis. Alex is a 2013 Veteran’s Voices Awardee, as a 10-Year Army Veteran, where he served during Operations Enduring and Iraqi Freedom.

Alex earned a Master of Arts degree in Management and another Master of Art’s in Human Resources from Webster University. He is a proud graduate of The Citadel, Military College of South Carolina, where he received his B.S. He resides in Woodbury with his wife Lisa and their two children, Raven and Alex Jr.