

BIOGRAPHY OF CHAIRMAN GERALD GRAY
LITTLE SHELL TRIBE OF CHIPPEWA INDIANS
FEBRUARY 12, 2019

Gerald Gray is currently in his second term as chairman of the Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians of Montana. Prior to becoming chairman, he served a term as the Tribe's first vice chairman. Chairman Gray led his Tribe's effort to restore its federal recognition, which was achieved on December 20, 2020 when the Little Shell Restoration Act was signed into law (as part of the National Defense Authorization Act). The Little Shell Tribe is now the 547th federally recognized tribe in the United States.

Chairman Gray also has twenty plus years of experience in market research and media development at the firm G&G. Before entering the world of marketing, he was a teacher at the Box Elder Public School System in Montana. Chairman Gray holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from Western Montana College.
