

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Acting Chief Financial Officer David Bloom

David Bloom is the Acting Chief Financial Officer at EPA, having oversight of EPA's annual budget and performance plan, strategic planning efforts, and financial operations, policy, and financial information systems for the Agency. He also oversees the E-Enterprise for the Environment initiative.

David began his federal career at the Office of Management and Budget in 1985. In 1991, David joined EPA's Office of Budget, where he worked in a number of capacities until his appointment as Budget Director in 2003. As Director of the Office of Budget, he managed staff overseeing the budget execution and budget formulation activities for the Agency and was responsible for the preparation of the Agency's Annual Budget. David was appointed the Agency's Deputy Chief Financial Officer in September 2014. Prior to that, he served as the Acting Deputy Chief Financial Officer for the Agency from April 2013 to August 2014. David currently serves as Acting Chief Financial Officer. He previously served as Acting Chief Financial Officer from September 2014 to July 2015 and again from January to November 2017.

During his more than three decades of public service at EPA, David has been at the forefront of the Agency's efforts to continuously find financial efficiencies and enhance accountability while working closely with the Office of Management and Budget, Congressional staff, and EPA's state, local, and tribal partners.

David received a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from The George Washington University. He was a recipient of the Presidential Rank Meritorious Executive Award in 2012.
