

My name is Gjermundson C. Jake RNSB Board President for 2024. I am Navajo. My maternal clan is Meadow People Clan, paternal clan is Towering House Clan, my adopted maternal grandfather clan is Apache People Clan, and my paternal grandfather clan is the Salt People Clan. I am a product of Pine Hill Schools. Graduated in 2006. I am a NMSU Alumni. I've worked in the Ramah Navajo community since 2013 and I am currently the IT-GIS Administrator for the Ramah Navajo Chapter Office of Grants and Contracts. My priority has always been enriching my community with the best education services possible and to provide advance health services. The children's education and my elder's health services are the main reasons why I am serving on the current Board of Trustees for the Ramah Navajo people.
