

Vice-Chair Donna Thompson, Shoshone-Bannock Tribes Fort Hall, Idaho

Vice-Chair Thompson is serving her fifth term on the Fort Hall Business Council and brings a combined history of over 30 years working for the Tribes.

Immediately prior to serving on Council, Thompson worked as the Human Resources Director at the Shoshone-Bannock Hotel & Event Center. She also has served in positions in accounting, the Tribal Enrollment Rights Office (TERO), and in Gaming Operations.

Donna also served on the Shoshone-Bannock Jr./Sr. High School Board and is a former Shoshone-Bannock Tribal Enterprise Corporation (SBTEC) and Shoshone-Bannock Agri-Business Corporation (SBABC) Board member.

A lifelong resident of the Fort Hall Reservation, in her spare time Thompson enjoys spending time with her family, attending pow wows, and supporting her grandchildren during dancing and sporting events.

Chairman Lee Juan Tendoy – Chairman Tendoy is serving his ninth term on the Fort Hall Business Council and his second term as the Chairman. He resides in the Fort Hall District with his daughter Leelayla.

Prior to serving on Council, Tendoy worked for the U.S. Forest Service and as a Wildland Firefighter. He was an Iron Worker and was employed with the FMC Corporation. He was also a Paraprofessional at the Shoshone-Bannock Jr./Sr. High School and teacher of the Shoshoni language.

Tendoy earned a Bachelor's Degree from Idaho State University. He is Veteran who served in the United States Army. Tendoy serves as the Tribes' representative on the following committees: The Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Regional Tribal Operations Committee (RTOC), the Tribal Science Council (TSC) which is under the umbrella of Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to further tribal environmental objectives and to protect our ecosystems for future generations. He is an active member of the Upper Snake River Tribes Foundation (USRT).

Lee Juan is culturally active in traditional and ceremonial ways of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes and is frequently called upon to provide prayers and songs at ceremonies and community events. He is a fluent Shoshoni speaker avid supporter of revitalizing the Shoshoni and Bannock languages. In his spare time, Lee Juan spends time with his family.

