

Steve de los Angeles
Vice-Chairman,
Snoqualmie Indian Tribe

Steve de los Angeles has served in the Snoqualmie Tribal Council for over 13 years and as Vice-Chairman since 2020. He also served three years as a Probation Officer and Security Guard for the Snoqualmie Tribe's Public Safety Department. During his tenure on Tribal Council, he has focused on social services for Native populations, emergency preparedness and management, care for elder Tribal Members and ensuring strong foundations for the next generation of Snoqualmie tribal members.

Vice-Chairman de los Angeles currently serves in the following roles:

- Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Indian Policy Advisory Committee – Member since 2013, Executive Secretary since 2017
- Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Economic Services Administration, Co-Chair since 2017

Prior positions include:

- King County Emergency Management Committee – Member (2014)
- Washington State Emergency Management Advisory Group (EMAG) – Alternate Member (2019)
- Washington State Governor's Tribal Leaders Social Services Council (GTLSSC) – Co-Chair (2021)
- Washington State Tribal Opioid & Fentanyl Response Task Force – Member (2023), Co-Chair of Tribal Opioid/Fentanyl Prevention, Education & Awareness Campaign Workgroup
- Fox Valley Technical College: Tribal Probation Academy – Graduate (2012)
- Edmonds College: Business Continuity & Emergency Management – Graduate (2023)

When not fulfilling his duties as a member of the Tribal Council, Vice-Chairman de los Angeles pursues his passion for photography, art, and Kempo Karate and enjoys travelling with his wife.