

With over 30 years in management, Inder Wadhwa has enhanced operations and financial performance. Holding an MBA, Inder has led teams across industries, achieving improvements in healthcare, strategic planning, business analysis, financial targets, and operational efficiencies through teamwork and partnerships. As the Chief Executive Officer at Northern Valley Indian Health, Inder has overseen significant growth in healthcare services over the past 15+ years. Managing a $100 million budget agency with over 475 employees across nine different sites in California, Inder has developed a team of senior professionals and reversed financial trends positively. Inder's responsibilities include strategic planning, business and fiscal analysis, project management, and the development and implementation of healthcare goals, objectives, policies, and strategies. Inder resides in Woodland, CA with his family.