

Jonodev Osceola Chaudhuri

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Chaudhuri Law Office, PLLC McLean, VA (DC Area); October 2021-Present

Principal

Provide legal and strategic advice to tribal nations on a wide range of issues from gaming and economic development, court and constitutional reform, regulatory issues including land into trust projects, and engagement with federal agencies.

Muscogee (Creek) Nation Washington, D.C.; May 2019-Present

Ambassador for the Muscogee (Creek) Nation

Serve as chief diplomat of the fourth largest tribal nation in the U.S., engaging with congress and federal agencies, national and international media, and representatives of tribal nations, states, and other governments to advocate for and advance the interests of the Muscogee Nation.

Quarles & Brady LLP Washington, D.C.; May 2019-September 2021

Partner and Chair of the Indian Law Practice

Leader of national firm's well-respected Indian law practice, representing tribal nations, tribal citizens, corporations, and individual clients on issues relating to commercial litigation, gaming, governance, tribal sovereignty and self-determination, and economic development.

National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) Washington, D.C.; September 2013-June 2019

Chairman (Senate-confirmed in April 2015); Acting Chairman (Oct. 2013-April 2015)

Chief federal official overseeing the $31.2B Indian gaming industry, comprising approximately 500 gaming facilities, operated by 244 tribal nations across 29 states.

- Shaped national policy and issued key decisions during a time of significant industry growth (over 12% / approximately $4B) and critical court decisions.
- Advanced federal policy of tribal self-determination through actions involving interpretation of IGRA's land provisions (e.g., a recent NIGC ruling upholding the Ponca Tribe of Nebraska's right to game on certain lands) and creation of NIGC core initiatives.
- Coordinated key amicus briefs with DOJ (e.g., the U.S. brief in Bay Mills Supreme Court case).
- Issued targeted and sound enforcement actions, including a novel settlement with an Oklahoma tribe that shed light on harmful third-party activities.
- Testified before the Senate five times and regularly engaged with tribal leaders, members of Congress, and leaders at federal agencies, including DOJ, DOI, FBI, DHS, IRS, and Treasury.

U.S. Department of the Interior Washington, D.C.; June 2012-September 2013

Senior Counselor to the Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs (AS-IA)

Advised the AS-IA and helped develop regulations and policies covering various national issues, including gaming, land-into-trust, energy, economic development, federal recognition, Alaska affairs, Indian child welfare, and justice services.

- Played a critical role in the development of new regulations allowing Alaska tribes to place land into trust, as well as the development of new rules relating to tribal recognition, the Buy Indian Act, and Indian Child Welfare Act guidelines.
- On behalf of the AS-IA and/or the Department, played a leadership role in interagency and interdisciplinary policy efforts, including the national Public Law 477 federal-tribal workgroup, US Interagency Council on Homelessness, the Labor Force Report Workgroup, DOI's Renewable Energy Strike Team, and a workgroup that successfully created a national model for abuse and assault policies at tribal colleges.
