

Albuquerque Area Indian Health Board

Mr. Conrad Jacket is from the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe. He is an elected member of the Tribal Council and currently serves as the Treasurer. Mr. Jacket also sits on the Board of the Albuquerque Area Indian Health Board. The Ute Mountain Ute Tribe is a member tribe of the Albuquerque Indian Health Board. Mr. Jacket has been serving on the Health Board for three years. He is Veteran and served in the United States Army for three years, with the last two years in the Iraq War. Mr. Jacket graduated from Montezuma-Cortez High School and has two kids. As a tribal leader, Mr. Jacket is a strong advocate of ensuring adequate social services, health care and housing for tribal members.