

Guy Capoeman

Guy Capoeman is a Quinault Tribal Citizen and currently serving his second term as President of the Quinault Indian Nation. President Capoeman has served the Quinault Nation for a total of Fifteen years as a councilmember, Vice President and President. President Capoeman is a cultural knowledge keeper, traditional leader, and renowned Coast Salish Artist. He graduated from the Pacific Northwest College of Art. He is the father of five sons and two daughters who are also enrolled Quinault Tribal Citizens. President Capoeman has lived on the Quinault Reservation for the majority of his life and enjoys the outdoors as an avid hunter, fisher, and outdoorsman.