Chairman Joe Davis

Hoopa Tribal Chairman Joe Davis was first elected to the Tribal Council in 2019 as a District Representative. In 2021, Mr. Davis was elected Chairman before leaving office in 2024 and returning again as Chairman in 2025. Prior to serving on the Council, Davis served as Hoopa Tribal Planning Director as well as Recreation Director. He has also been a longtime volunteer for youth sports and spent 5 years working in local schools on the largest Indian Reservation in California where he lives with his Wife Kayla and their 3 daughters Randee age 6, Jordyn Shana age 5 and Eden age 1. Davis is very thankful for the opportunity to serve his Tribe's which has a rich history of fishing, natural resource stewardship, and self-determination as one of the very first Self-Governance Compact Tribes from the early 1990's pilot project.
