

Geoffrey G. Burr
Vice President of Federal Affairs
Associated Builders & Contractors
Chairman
Coalition for a Democratic Workplace

Geoff Burr is vice president of federal affairs at Associated Builders & Contractors (ABC), a trade association representing nearly 22,000 contractors, subcontractors, materials suppliers and construction related firms in 72 chapters throughout the country. Geoff oversees the legislative, political, policy and regulatory departments at ABC. In addition, Geoff chairs the Coalition for a Democratic Workplace (CDW), a coalition of more than 600 businesses and organizations founded to protect employers' and employees' rights to a federally supervised private ballot election when deciding whether or not to join a union.

Prior to accepting his current position, Geoff spent three years as a political appointee, serving in the Bush administration at the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL). During his time at DOL, Geoff served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Labor for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs. In this capacity he focused his work on presidential initiatives and other major labor issues such as the Davis-Bacon Act, union transparency and disclosure, occupational safety, apprenticeship, unemployment insurance, Trade Adjustment Assistance, the Workforce Investment Act, and comprehensive immigration reform.

He is a graduate of the College of William & Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia.
