

Stephane VanderMeulen, MPAS, PA-C

Ms. VanderMeulen currently serves as President of the Board of Directors for the Physician Assistant Education Association (PAEA). She assumed this position in January 2015, after two terms on the Board as Director at Large.

Ms. VanderMeulen serves as the Director of Didactic Education at the University of Nebraska's Physician Assistant (PA) Program. In this role, she coordinates the Communication in Medicine and Clinical Skills courses, teaches in her areas of clinical expertise in the Adult and Pediatric Medicine course, and leads the program's admissions committee.

As a member of the Nebraska Academy of Physician Assistants, Ms. VanderMeulen serves as the liaison to the Nebraska Board of Medicine and Surgery and as co-chair of the Legislative and Governmental Affairs committee.

Ms. VanderMeulen completed her undergraduate education at Wayne State College and her Master of PA studies degree at the University of Nebraska Medical Center. She is pursuing a PhD in Gerontology at the University of Nebraska – Lincoln and is a member of Sigma Phi Omega, the national honor society for gerontology. Her clinical expertise includes Family Medicine and Orthopedic Surgery/Sports Medicine.