

Chief Executive Officer Jeffrey W. Chell, M.D

Chief Executive Officer, National Marrow Donor
Program Executive Director, CIBMTR® (Center for International Blood and Marrow Transplant Research)

Jeffrey W. Chell, M.D., became the National Marrow Donor Program's Chief Executive Officer in 2000. He has led the NMDP through transformational growth. The Be The Match Registry® has more than doubled to more than 16 million volunteer donors and the number of transplants facilitated has grown four fold to over 6,400 annually. During his tenure, the emerging use of umbilical cord blood for transplant has established the NMDP as the global leader in facilitating cord blood transplants.

Chell also is co-founder and serves as Executive Director of CIBMTR®, the leading research program in the field, established in 2004. CIBMTR is a joint effort between the NMDP and the Medical College of Wisconsin.

Prior to joining the NMDP, he served as president of Allina Medical Clinics; was in private-practice physician of Internal Medicine in Minneapolis; and before that served in the U.S. Air Force Medical Corps.

Chell received his M.D. from the University of Minnesota and his training in Internal Medicine at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Dr. Chell is a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, a member of the American Society of Hematology and a member of the American Society of Blood and marrow Transplantation.
