

Ms. Stacy A. Bohlen

Chief Executive Officer

National Indian Health Board

Stacy A. Bohlen (Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians), is the Executive Director of the National Indian Health Board (NIHB). With the support of a strong, tribally-elected Board of Directors, Ms. Bohlen's service to NIHB has contributed to the organization's successful work to establish and elevate the Tribal presence for improving health care in the Nation's Capitol, promoted and strengthened the organization's service to all federally recognized Tribes, significantly increased NIHB's budget, staff and connectivity to the Tribes and increased NIHB's effectiveness. Prior to joining NIHB, she was the Director of Federal Relations for the American Indian Higher Education Consortium, Deputy Director of the American Osteopathic Association's Washington, DC Office, and served on the staff of former U.S. Congressman Bob Traxler. Ms. Bohlen received her Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Oakland University in Rochester Hills, MI. She was born and raised in Michigan.
