

Verna Foust, MS, LPC, NBCC
Chief Executive Officer
Red Rock Behavioral Health Services

Verna Foust is the Chief Executive Officer for Red Rock Behavioral Health Services, a federally designated Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC), certified by the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services as a Community Mental Health Center (CMHC) and nationally certified by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF). Red Rock is one of the largest behavioral health and substance use facilities in the state serving 18 counties with 26 locations across Oklahoma including outpatient, crisis stabilization for adults and youth, substance use residential treatment, prevention and housing.

Ms. Foust has worked in the field of Community Mental Health for over 30 years. She has experience in the planning, development and oversight of traditional and specialty behavioral health programs, in both urban and rural communities

She is a native of Clinton, OK and holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Management and Psychology and a Master's Degree in Psychology from Southwestern Oklahoma State University. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor and National Board Certified Counselor. She is President of the Alliance for Mental Health Providers of Oklahoma, has served as Chair of the Oklahoma Forensic Review Board, President of the Oklahoma Behavioral Health Association and is a member of the Mental Health Association of American and the Oklahoma Behavioral Health Advisory Committee.

