Mr. John Conger

Acting Deputy Under Secretary of Defense Installations & Environment

Mr. John Conger is the Acting Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Installations and Environment, providing management and oversight for U.S. military installations worldwide – comprising 29 million acres, more than 500,000 buildings and structures, and a replacement value of over $850 billion – and for facilities energy, environmental, safety, and occupational health programs. He has been the Assistant Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Installations and Environment since June 2009. Previously, he worked for Representatives Chet Edwards, Jane Harman and Sam Gejdenson, and served as Professional Staff for the House International Relations Committee. He holds a B.S. and an M.S. in Aerospace Engineering from MIT and an M.A. in Science, Technology and Public Policy from George Washington University.